

STREET
dreams

their bodies can belong to others
but their dreams are their own

a RED EARTH FILMS special event

Red Earth Films cordially invites you to join us on September 3rd as we seek to expose the struggle between slavery and freedom in the South East Asian sex trade.

The evening will feature footage from our upcoming documentary Street Dreams as well as a mix of entertainment designed to stimulate your senses. Our filmmakers and special guests hope to give you a firm grasp on the current state of human trafficking and what we can all do about it.

Don't miss this exciting opportunity!

FEATURING

- Debut of the Street Dreams film trailer
- Social justice band Remember Seven – including launch of their Red Lit Stage music video
- Presentation by Destiny Rescue – a key character in the film
- Queensland's leading Jazz band – SCAT

DATE

- Saturday 3 September, 2011
7:00 – 10:00 pm

VENUE

- The Bleeding Heart Gallery, 166 Ann St, Brisbane (50 metres from Central Station)
- Finger food provided, beverages available for purchase

The event is $15 per person with net proceeds going to Red Earth's ongoing creation of the Street Dreams documentary, plus our donation of providing promotional material to Destiny Rescue and FOCUS – two not-for-profits doing vital work in this area.